(4) The chairperson may, in any particular case, extend the period contemplated in sub-regulation (2) or (3) on the written request of the entity concerned, but not for more than 14 days.

(5) The designated official must on receipt of documents contemplated in sub-regulations (2) and (3), verify with the parties as to whether they received the said documentation and if not, forward copies thereof to any person who made representations or lodged an objection to the application to which the appeal relates.

(6) Thereafter, the designed official must request parties to the appeal to make and forward their comments on the response documentation received from the entity within 10 days and to serve their comments to the Tribunal and to all the parties to the appeal.

(7) If the entity fails to provide the information set out in sub-regulations (2) or (3) within the period of 21 days prescribed in those sub-regulations, or any extended period granted in terms of sub-regulation (4), the Tribunal may—

- (a) proceed to hear the appeal on the basis of the lodged notice of appeal and attached documents, or

Appeal procedure: parties

4. (1) The chairperson or his or her delegate may at any time after the filing of a notice of appeal in terms of regulation 2 issue a directive notice directing one or more of the parties to the appeal to send a directive reply that complies with sub-regulations (2) and (3) stating and curtailing the issues for consideration at the appeal hearing, being such issues as determined by the chairperson or his or her delegate and set out in the directive notice and must deliver such a reply if he, she or it wishes to raise or rely on any grounds or issues at the appeal hearing, and must set out those grounds or issues in the directive reply.

(2) A party who has been issued with a directive notice must comply therewith and send a directive reply to the Tribunal in writing that complies with sub-regulation (3) within 10 days from the date of issue of the directive notice: provided that any party to the appeal may deliver such a directive reply despite not having received a directive notice from the Tribunal.

(3) A directive reply—

- (a) must respond to the questions in the directive notice and state the facts which are in dispute, admitted or rejected that are material to the appeal;

- (b) must set out any other facts on which the parties propose to rely that are material to the appeal;
- (c) must provide details of witnesses if any, that the parties intend to call during the appeal hearing,
- (d) may attach a settlement agreement signed between the parties, and
- (e) may provide for any other issues for consideration by the Tribunal.

Appeal procedure: Tribunal

5. (1) Subject to sub-regulation (6) an appellant may at a hearing of an appeal rely only on the grounds and issues stated in the notice of appeal and may give only such evidence as was given before the relevant entity.

(2) Subject to sub-regulation (6), other parties to the appeal may at the hearing of the appeal also only rely on the grounds and issues stated in writing in their directive reply and any grounds or issues that were given as evidence before the relevant entity.

(3) An appellant who did not participate in the application, the outcome of which is the subject of an appeal, may at the hearing of the appeal rely only on the grounds stated in his or her notice of appeal and may give relevant evidence not given before the entity that considered the application.

(4) Any party not cited or joined in the appeal proceedings and appeared to have an interest in the outcome of the appeal, may apply to be joined in the appeal proceedings at the discretion of the Tribunal.

(5) The Tribunal may at any stage of the appeal proceedings, in its own discretion and on application by the appellant or any other party to the appeal, allow any document submitted by any party to be amended upon such terms as the Tribunal considers just.

(6) Despite sub-regulations (1) and (2), the Tribunal may allow, in special circumstances and on good cause shown, evidence not given before the relevant entity to be admitted.

(7) The designated official must send any directive notice or directive reply sent to a party to the appeal or filed by such a party with the Tribunal, as the case may be, to all other parties to the appeal by e-mail if they have not already received the same.

(8) The Tribunal may grant an order on any point which appears to be an issue in the appeal to be determined as a preliminary issue, and may, in appropriate circumstances, decide on or dismiss the appeal in terms of section 12 of the Act based on its decision on such a preliminary issue.

(9) If in the opinion of the Tribunal, the determination of a preliminary issue will substantially dispose of the entire appeal, the Tribunal may treat the hearing of the preliminary issue as the hearing of the appeal and may grant such an order by way of disposing of the appeal as it deems fit.

(10) Any Notice or Reply filed by the parties to an appeal with the Tribunal must first be served on all other parties and proof of service must be furnished to the Tribunal.

(11) A party who is in default of any of the provisions of this Regulations shall not be heard in respect of any issue raised in such Regulations except on good cause shown to the Tribunal for its failure to comply.

(12) Where at a sitting of the Tribunal it has partly heard the merits of an appeal and further hearings are needed to finalise the appeal, the Secretariat must ensure that the members who constituted the Tribunal continue as members in subsequent sittings until the partly heard matters are finalised, except where a member is permanently or temporarily unable to participate as a member of the Tribunal.

(13) Sub-regulation (12) does not apply to the hearing of preliminary issues.

(14) A preliminary issue contemplated in sub-regulation (8) may be raised by any party to the appeal.

(15) The Tribunal may in its discretion postpone the hearing of an appeal or alter the place of any hearing of the appeal.

(16) If the Tribunal decides on or dismisses an appeal in terms of section 12 of the Act, or postpones an appeal or alters the place of any hearing in terms of sub-regulation (15), the designated official must notify all parties to the appeal of the Tribunal's decision in writing not later than 10 days after such decision.

(17) Any irregularity resulting from a failure to comply with any provision of these Regulations before the Tribunal has reached its decision does not in itself render the proceedings void.

(18) Any clerical mistake or error in any document recording a decision of the Tribunal, or any error arising in such a document from an incidental error or omission may be corrected by the person presiding at the proceedings in which the decision was made.

(19) (a) Before the commencement of any hearing of an appeal, members of the Tribunal must disclose any direct or indirect financial or personal interest that any of them may have in any matter before the Tribunal that may affect the impartiality of the member concerned.

(b) The chairperson may at his or her discretion after consideration of all disclosures, if any, contemplated in paragraph (a) make a ruling for the member to be recused from such hearing or make any other ruling that will ensure the impartiality of the Tribunal.

Time limit for appeal and condonation

6. (1) A notice of appeal must be lodged with the Tribunal within 30 days from the date of the written notice whereby the act, direction or decision of the relevant entity was communicated to the Appellant or in the case of an appellant who did not receive such written notice, within 30 days of the date when the appellant became aware of the decision but not later than 90 days from the date on which the act, direction or decision appealed against was taken.

(2) An appellant who fails to lodge an appeal within the period contemplated in sub-regulation (1) may apply to the Tribunal for condonation of the late filing of the notice of appeal in terms of section 13(a) of the Act, provided that—

(3) The Tribunal must consider an application for condonation prior to the hearing of the appeal whether the application is opposed or not.

(4) A ruling by the Tribunal to condone an appellant's late filing of a notice of appeal allows the appeal to proceed as if it was properly filed.

Suspension of the operation of the act, direction or decision appealed against

7. (1) An application to suspend the operation of an act, direction or decision appealed against made in accordance with section 13(b) of the Act must be made simultaneously with the lodging of the appeal, must be in writing and be accompanied by—

(2) Any party to an appeal may give written notice to the Tribunal that he, she or it opposes an application contemplated in sub-regulation (1), except where the chairperson has already granted or refused such an application in terms of section 13(b) of the Act, and the chairperson may set down the question of such suspension for hearing by the Tribunal as a preliminary hearing before hearing the merits of the main appeal.

Appearance before Tribunal

8. (1) The Tribunal may summon any person to appear before it in terms of section 14(1)(b) of the Act by completing Form TAT 03 in Annexure 1.

(2) A summons contemplated in sub-regulation (1) must be signed by the chairperson or his or her delegate and must be served by a sheriff contemplated in the Sheriffs Act, 1986 (Act No. 90 of 1986) or an authorised officer as defined in section 1 of the National Land Transport Act.

(2) The chairperson may grant a postponement of the proceedings or remove the appeal from the roll upon good cause shown, either before or on the date of the hearing and may refuse the application for postponement or removal.

(3) If a postponement is opposed, the chairperson may request the parties to the hearing to make representations within three days before ruling on the matter.

(4) If the chairperson makes a decision to postpone proceedings or to remove the appeal from the roll, the designated official must give notice of such postponement or removal to all parties to the appeal, either telephonically or by e-mail, not later than three days after the Tribunal has taken that decision.
