DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE AND CONSTITUTIONAL DEVELOPMENT

NO. 3808

22 August 2023

ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE DEDICATED COURTS FOR THE HEARING OF ALLEGED OFFENCES ASSOCIATED WITH THE 2023 BRICS SUMMIT

1. The Department of Justice and Constitutional Development has a constitutional obligation to ensure that, the rights of all people who are within the borders of the country are protected. In the furtherance of this constitutional mandate, the Department is putting extraordinary measures in place to ensure that the cases involving the participants who will be coming from BRICS countries are fast tracked.
2. The Department in conjunction with the Justice Crime Prevention and Security Cluster, which includes the South African Police Service (SAPS), the National Prosecuting Authority (NPA), Legal Aid South Africa (LASA) and the Judiciary, developed an Administration of Justice Plan to be implemented in order to deal with alleged offences associated with the 2023 BRICS summit.
