- (a) It is hereby proposed to increase the fuel levy with the CPI annual increase for three consecutive financial years commencing on 1 April 2024, 1 April 2025 and 1 April 2026 respectively.
- (b) Based on the forecasted rate the proposed fuel levy tariff increases will be as per the following table:

Fuel Levy Increase Forecast
YEAR	CPI	CENT/LITRE
2023/2024	4.8%	21.83
2024/2025	4.7%	22.86
2025/2026	4.6%	23.91

Motivation

Over the next 3 years of the MTEF Budget the key focus will be on carrying out the SACAA's mandate by complying with the International Civil Aviation Organization's Standards and Recommended Practices (SARPs) considering the local context. Spending will thus be focused on the administration and continuous improvement of civil aviation safety, security and environment oversight.

The SACAA proposes to amend the determination for the increase of the fuel levy annually for the next three years. The fuel levy income for the current financial year 2023/2024 is forecasted to decrease by 2.6% when compared to the previous financial year. With the return of commercial airlines, volumes of freight has shifted from cargo flights to cargo holds of scheduled passenger flights which does not generate a fuel levy. Flights in the general aviation and charter business have been impacted severely and are only expected to return to normal levels over the next two financial years. Fuel volumes are expected to remain static over the MTEF budget period, while the fuel levy rate has been budgeted to increase in line with CPI. The latest fee increases of 8.5% from 19.2 cents per liter to 20.83 cents per liter was effective from 1 May 2023 after approval from the Minister of Transport with concurrence by the Minister of Finance.

The SACAA is proposing for the Aviation Fuel levy increase with the CPI annually for a period of three consecutive financial years commencing on 1 April 2024, 1 April 2025 and 1 April 2026 respectively.
