Introduction

The School Governing Bodies (SGB) are an important key feature in our schools as per the prescripts of South African Schools Act (SASA), 84 of 1996, as amended. SASA recognises the rights and responsibilities of all stakeholders involved in schools and compel every school to have a school governing body which is effective and functional. Since the election of school governing bodies is a democratic process, it has made them to attract more competent people, young parents, heightened community involvement and interest.

The governing body of every school have a legal status and its main objective is to promote the welfare of the school, this force its members to represent the school and its community but not individuals. Therefore, people elected into the SGB should have the learners' interest at heart by ensuring safe schools with a learning environment that will enhance the provision of quality learning and teaching.

The SGB elections are the third biggest elections after national and local government elections looking at the number of people to be elected into SGB structures in all schools. They call for maximised advocacy to the parents and communities to encourage full participation and support. These elections require diligent and committed officials at all levels, including School Governing Body Association members to ensure that the elections are inclusive, successful, free, transparent and fair.

All parents as defined in the South African Schools Act, 84 of 1996 with children enrolled at our public schools should participate by allowing themselves to be voted in and vote for other parents. Educators, non- educator staff members and learners should comply, take part during this process and allow the smooth running of the elections. Eligible voters are encouraged to elect competent, knowledgeable, capable and people with good standing in their communities into the school governing bodies of their schools.

Purpose

- To regularise the School Governing Body election process in the province
- To give effect to provincial SGB election regulations regarding governance in our schools
- To provide information on the participants during the school governing bodies elections
- To clearly outline the composition of the SGB
- To eradicate the challenge of personal interest by the community
- To ensure that processes outlined in these regulations are implemented in a fair and just manner through monitoring the process
- To guide the electoral officers and all involved during the election process

Application of Regulations

These regulations apply and are binding to the governing bodies of all public schools including special schools within the North West province.
