MR T. W. NXESI, MP
MINISTER OF EMPLOYMENT AND LABOUR
DATE: 20/03/2024

EXPLANATION NOTE ON THE 2023 ROE SEASON

The Return of Earnings (ROEs) must be submitted from 1 April 2024 to 30 June 2024. The ROEs submitted after 30 June 2024 will be charged a 10% penalty for late submission. NB. The 2023 ROE assessment period is for the period from 1 March 2023 to 29 February 2024.

"Employer" means any person, including the State, who employs an employee, and includes-

- Any person controlling the business of an employer;
 - If the services of an employee are lent or let or temporarily made available to some other person by his employer, such employer for such period as the employee works for that other person;
- A labour broker who against payment provides a person to a client for the rendering of a service or the performance of work, and for which service or work such person is paid by the labour broker.

"Employee" means a person who has entered into, or works under a contract of service or apprenticeship or learnership with an employer, whether the contract is expressed or implied, oral or in writing, and whether remuneration is calculated by time or work done, or is in cash or in kind and includes -

- Casual / temporary employee employed for the purpose of the employer's business/farming activities.
- Working director of a Company or member of a Close Corporation/Body Corporate, who has entered into a contract of service, or of apprenticeship or learnership, in so far that the employee acts within the scope of his/her employment in terms of such contract. (Excluding shareholders or "silent partners" who are only paid dividends or sharing profits).
- A person provided by a labour broker against payment to a client.
- Domestic employees

Earnings are all payments of an employee as remuneration that he/she receives from his/her employer before any deductions, whether in money or in kind and includes but not limited to -

Included in the gross earnings before any deductions are the following:

- Overtime of a regular nature, (not intermittent or irregular overtime).
- Bonuses of any kind, including incentive bonuses and annual bonuses.
- Commission, even though the amount may vary from month to month.
- The cash value of food and quarters supplied to employees as part of a remuneration package. Cash value of fringe benefits such as a company car, free accommodation or accommodation at a reduced rate, etc.
- Travel and other allowances paid regularly, as part of the package.
- Any other remuneration in cash or in kind to an employee by virtue of his/her contract of service.
- Where the employee is remunerated in accordance with package of benefits, all items forming part of the package, other than employer contributions such as medical aid contributions.
- Earnings/Drawings paid to working Directors of a Company or Members of a Close Corporation.

Excluded are the following:

- Payments of a reimbursive nature.
- Overtime worked occasionally.
- Payments for specific non-recurring tasks which do not form part of an employee's normal duties.
- Ex gratia payments.
- Intangible fringe benefits such as the taxable portion of medical aid/pension contributions by the employer, etc.
- Payments to cover special expenses such as subsistence and travelling costs, lunch and costs for business meetings.
- Travel and other allowances paid occasionally.
- Profit sharing of Directors and Members.

MAXIMUM EARNINGS

A Maximum Earnings is applied annually at the end of the assessment period to the individual employee's annual total earnings, not per month. Full annual maximum earnings will apply irrespective of the number of months the employee was employed in the 2023 ROE Season.

| | 2023 | 2024 |
|------------------|--|--|
| | (01 March 2023 to 29 February 2024) – Assessment Period. | (01 March 2024 to 28 February 2025) – Assessment Period. |
| Maximum earnings | R568 959 | R597 328 |

Examples:

1. If an employee has earned a total earnings of R600 000.00 from the employer during the period as stated above, the amount should be capped at R568 959.00 and be declared as such.
2. If an employee has earned total earnings of any amount below R568 959.00, the total earnings must be declared as is, regardless of whether the said employee worked for a full year or part year.

EMPLOYER WHO CEASED TO OPERATE DURING THE 2023 ROE SEASON

When a company is sold, ceased operations, liquidated, sequestered, merged, has no employees, or has a deceased employer/owner. If the employer has ceased to operate during the 2023 ROE Season, the CF-1C Deregistration Form and the CF-2A must be completed up to the period the employer was operating. CF does not accept zero earnings, and it is the responsibility of the employer to ensure the CF is notified if the business ceases to operate. The Forms can be accessed at the following address: www.labour.gov.za, click Resource Centre, click Forms, click Compensation for Occupational Injuries and Diseases. If you wish to re-register with the CF, you cannot re-register online; a manual Registration Form must be completed and forwarded to cfcallcentre@labour.gov.za

A LETTER OF GOOD STANDING

A Letter of Good Standings (LOGS) will be generated once the employer complies with the following:

- Declaring the 2023 Return of Earnings.
- A full payment is made to CF with no outstanding balance.

- An application for instalment is made by the employer and approved by the CF. The employer will be able to generate a monthly LOGS after making a payment.
- A payment made from the employer's ABSA account to CF's ABSA account will reflect on the following day. It means the employer will be able to generate a Letter of Good Standing after uploading the bank statement to the CF's operational system.
- A payment made from the employer's account other than the ABSA account, it will reflect after 1 or 2 days unless it is an immediate payment. Then, the employer will be able to generate a Letter of Good Standing after uploading the bank statement to the CF's operational system.
- Employer must always use the banking details appearing on the Notice of Assessment/Invoice generated by the CF or call the CF Call Centre for confirmation.
- A payment must be made in the bank account appearing in the Notice of Assessment/Invoice and you must use your CF Registration Number (99.....) as a Reference for ease of the allocation of the payment. Your CF registration Number is a 12 digits' number allocated to the employer when registering the business.
- A Letter of Good Standing can only be generated online at <https://cfonline.labour.gov.za/OnlineSubmissions>. Please make sure the email address is correct because an OTP will be sent to the registered email address to enable you to receive an OTP.
- A validation of a Letter of Good Standing can be checked by following this instruction: www.labour.gov.za, click Online Services, click ROE Online, click Verify Letter of Good Standing. You must enter the Certificate Number from the Letter of Good Standing.
