NATIONAL TREASURYNO. 5683*13 December 2024*PUBLICATION OF DRAFT GENERAL LAWS (ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING AND COMBATING TERRORISM FINANCING) AMENDMENT BILL, 2024, FOR PUBLIC COMMENT

Notice is hereby given that the draft General Laws (Anti-Money Laundering and Combating Terrorism Financing) Amendment Bill, 2024 ('the Bill') is published for public comment. The Bill proposes to amend—

- the Nonprofit Organisations Act, 1997, so as to provide for maximum penalties for offences;
- the Financial Intelligence Centre Act, 2001, so as to amend and insert a certain definition; to require the Director to give notice pursuant to an order in terms of section 23 of the Protection of Constitutional Democracy against Terrorist and Related Activities Act, 2004; to expand the circumstances under which a person or entity referred to in section 26A may be permitted provision of financial services to include providing for extraordinary expenses; to provide for the accrual of interest or other earnings due on accounts holding property affected by a prohibition under section 26B that arose before the date on which the person or entity was identified by the Security Council of the United Nations; to require the person authorised by the Minister to receive a report relating to the conveyance of cash to or from the Republic to send a copy of the report to the Centre within a prescribed period; to require accountable institutions to take into account the risk of new delivery mechanisms and the use of new or developing technologies which may involve or facilitate money laundering activities, the financing of terrorist and related activities or proliferation financing activities;
- the Companies Act to empower the Commission to deregister a company that fails to submit a securities register within a certain period; to empower the Commission to impose administrative penalties; to empower the Companies Tribunal to review a decision of the Commission to impose an administrative fine; and
- the Financial Sector Regulation Act, 2017, so as to provide for the circumstances under which new services are expanded to include arrangements that are similar in nature or have similar outcomes as financial products and services; to ensure that the responsible authority may license financial institutions that are providing financial products and financial services, including new services despite existing licensing requirements in other legislation; to empower financial sector regulators to obtain information from significant owners or beneficial owners; to empower financial sector regulators to institute an investigation under certain circumstances; to exclude transactions concluded under a 'master agreement' as defined in the Insolvency Act, 1936, from the application of a certain section.
