Purpose of these Regulations

2. The purpose of these Regulations is to provide for the administration and operation of the Commission to ensure the achievement of its purpose, functions and responsibilities.

Application of these Regulations

3. These Regulations apply to the Commission and its Secretariat.

CHAPTER 2

OBJECT AND GOVERNING PRINCIPLES OF THE COMMISSION

Object of the Commission

4. The primary object of the Commission is to facilitate dialogue between social partners and provide advice towards a long-term just transition through an inclusive, transparent, action-oriented process informed by the best available science.

Governing principles

5. The Commission must—
 - (1) provide sound, objective and independent advice to government informed by the best available science;
 - (2) be efficient, effective, economic and transparent in utilising its human and capital resources;
 - (3) be open and transparent in the performance of its functions;
 - (4) conduct its work and activities in a manner that allows meaningful and effective public participation with affected persons or stakeholders, with a particular objective of including the voices of the people in the Republic that are most affected by climate change and the just transition; and
 - (5) be accountable to Parliament.

CHAPTER 3

ADMINISTRATION MATTERS

Administration

6. The Commission has a secretariat consisting of—
 - (1) the Executive Director and any staff members referred to in regulation 13 of these Regulations.
 - (2) the Executive Director is the head of the Secretariat who must perform the functions of the office of the Secretariat in accordance with the Act.

Framework for recruitment of the Executive Director

7. As contemplated in section 13(1) of the Act, the appointment of the Executive Director will consist of—
- (1) a competitive recruitment and selection process by the department supported by the Commission; and appointment made by the Minister.
 - (2) The recruitment and selection process must include—
 - (a) advertisement of the vacant position in at least two nationally circulated newspapers; and
 - (b) the pre-selection, shortlisting, interview, competency assessment process and method must follow employment practices that are justifiable, competitive, equitable and fair, and compatible with labour legislation.
 - (3) Following the recruitment and selection process, the Minister may appoint the Executive Director in terms of section 13(1) of the Act.

Roles and responsibilities of the Executive Director

8. As head of Secretariat, the Executive Director—
- (1) is responsible for the management of the administration, including the—
 - (a) formation and development of an efficient Secretariat staff;
 - (b) organisation, maintenance of discipline and management of all Secretariat staff; and
 - (c) compliance with all legislation applicable to the Commission by Secretariat staff.
 - (2) is responsible for—
 - (a) managing the financial administration of the Commission;
 - (b) all income and expenditure of the Commission; and
 - (c) all assets and the discharge of all liabilities of the Commission.
 - (3) must establish and follow employment practices that are equitable, fair and compatible with labour legislation;
 - (4) must comply with section 15(5) and section 16(1) of the Act, the provisions of the Public Finance Management Act and regulation 20 of these Regulations.
 - (5) must carry out the decisions of the Commission, subject to regulation 22(2) of these Regulations;
 - (6) must exercise such powers and perform such duties as the Commission may delegate to the Executive Director;
 - (7) must report to the Commission, Minister and Parliament on aspects of management of the administration, financial responsibilities in accordance with the provisions of the Public Finance Management Act, and the exercise of powers and duties, at such frequency and in such manner, as may be required; and
 - (8) must exercise the responsibilities, duties and powers of office subject to the direction and oversight of the Commission.

Roles and responsibilities of the Secretariat

9. As administrative and secretariat support to the Commission, the Secretariat, under the supervision, control and direction of the Executive Director, is responsible for—
- (1) the management of the administrative affairs of the Commission, including—
 - (a) secretarial and administrative services to the Commission, and its committees; and
 - (b) causing all records of matters dealt with by the Commission and its committees to be safeguarded.
 - (2) the preparation of meetings and the running of the day-to-day operations, including—
 - (a) organising meetings of the Commission and its committees;
 - (b) all logistical arrangements for all commissioners and for collating an agenda and documents relating to all matters to be dealt with by the Commission and its committees;
 - (c) managing and facilitating the work of the Commission throughout the year, and liaising with members of the committees on matters delegated to the committees by the Commission; and
 - (d) undertake consultations and arrange dialogue sessions as directed by the Commission.
 - (3) research, including—
 - (a) research on threats and emerging climate change issues that may affect the Republic;
 - (b) engage with stakeholders to identify and synthesize research questions that the Commission needs to address in respect of climate change;
 - (c) analyse global climate change research with recommendations for national consideration;
 - (d) publish a state of climate change research in the Republic with recommendations for policy making; and
 - (e) produce an independent state of climate change response report.
 - (4) communications, including—
 - (a) managing and responding to inquiries from the public;
 - (b) collecting and collating information on the work of the Commission, in accordance with the decisions and instructions of the Commission;
 - (c) communicating decision, reports, studies, strategies, recommendations and related information to the public;
 - (d) Disseminating and circulating reports, studies, strategies, recommendations and related information to the public; and
 - (e) preparing the Commission's approved recommendations to government, in accordance with the decisions and instructions of the Commission.
 - (5) undertaking such administrative and secretariat support related to the work of the Commission and its committees, as may from time to time be directed by the Commission.

Termination of services, resignation and removal from office of the Executive Director

10. A person appointed as Executive Director ceases to be an Executive Director—
 - (1) when that person's term of office expires.
 - (2) if that person—
 - (a) dies;
 - (b) resigns, subject to subregulation (3); or
 - (c) is removed from office in terms of subregulation (4).
 - (3) A person appointed as Executive Director may resign—
 - (a) on account of ill health or for any other reason which the Minister considers appropriate; or
 - (b) by giving at least three month's written notice to the Minister, but the Minister may accept a shorter period.
 - (4) The Minister may remove an Executive Director from office on the grounds of—
 - (a) misconduct, incapacity or incompetence;
 - (b) conviction of a criminal offence without the option of a fine; or
 - (c) engaging in any activity that may undermine the principles, procedures, credibility, independence or integrity of the Commission and its Secretariat.
 - (5) An Executive Director may be removed from office on the ground set out in subregulation (4)(a) or (c) only after a finding to that effect by an enquiry appointed by the Minister.
 - (6) The Minister—
 - (a) may suspend an Executive Director from office at any time after the start of the proceedings of the enquiry for the removal of that Executive Director; and
 - (b) must remove an Executive Director from office upon a finding to that effect by the enquiry appointed by the Minister.

Process to fill a vacancy in the office of the Executive Director

11. (1) Whenever necessary to fill a vacancy in the office of the Executive Director, caused by expiry of term of office, death, resignation or removal from office, the Minister must follow the appointment process set out in section 13(1) of the Act to fill such vacancy.
- (2) A person appointed to fill a vacancy in the office of the Executive Director holds office on the terms and conditions set out in section 13(3) of the Act.

Transitional procedures and appointment of acting Executive Director

12. Whenever the Executive Director is unable to exercise the responsibilities, duties and powers of office; or there is a vacancy in the office of the Executive Director; or the Executive Director is suspended under regulation 10(6)(a) —
- (1) the Minister may, on recommendation of the Commission, appoint a senior staff member of the Secretariat as acting Executive Director for a period not exceeding six (6) months, but the Minister may, on good cause, extend the appointment for a further period not exceeding six (6) months.
 - (2) If the Executive Director is for any reason absent, the Executive Director may appoint a senior staff member of the Secretariat as acting Executive Director for a period not exceeding six (6) weeks.
 - (3) When acting in terms of subregulation (1) or (2), the acting Executive Director has all the powers and duties of the Executive Director.

Appointment of Commission staff

13. The Executive Director—
- (1) within the administrative and functional limits set by the Act and internal human resource management policy, and financial limits set by the Public Finance Management Act, must —
 - (a) in consultation with National Treasury, determine and appoint a staff establishment necessary for the work of the Commission; and
 - (b) may appoint persons in posts on the staff establishment.
 - (2) A person appointed in terms of this Act is employed subject to the terms and conditions of employment determined by the Commission, and must be paid the remuneration, allowances and benefits determined by the Commission in consultation with National Treasury.
 - (3) A person seconded to the Secretariat or appointed on contract to perform specific tasks, must perform their duties under the control and directions of the Executive Director in accordance with the secondment or contract.

Human resource management

14. Human resource management and related issues must be dealt with in terms of a human resources policy adopted by the Commission. The human resource policy must comply with the provisions of Basic Conditions of Employment Act and Labour Relations Act and related legislation.

CHAPTER 4

FINANCIAL MATTERS

GENERAL MATTERS

Delegation

25. (1) The Commission may delegate a power or duty vested in it in terms of the Act to—
- (a) the Executive Director; or
 - (b) a committee of the Commission.
- (2) A delegation referred to in subregulation (1)—
- (a) must be in writing;
 - (b) may be made subject to conditions;
 - (c) does not prevent the exercise of the power or the performance of the duty by the Minister personally;
 - (d) may include the power to subdelegate; and
 - (e) may be withdrawn by the Commission.
- (3) The Commission may confirm, vary or revoke any decision taken in consequence of a delegation or subdelegation in terms of this regulation, subject to any rights that may have accrued to a person as a result of the decision.
- (4) The Commission may not delegate the power to make recommendations to government.

Limitation of liability

26. The Commission, Executive Director or a member of staff of the Commission exercising a power or performing a duty in terms of the Act, is not liable in respect of any loss or damage resulting from the exercise of that power or performance of that duty, or failure to exercise that power or perform that duty, unless the exercise of or failure to exercise that power, or performance of or failure to perform that duty was unlawful, negligent or in bad faith.

Protection of information

27. (1) The Commission must take reasonable steps to guard against the disclosure of secret or classified information obtained in the course of carrying out its functions or duties in terms of the Act.
- (2) Steps taken in terms of subregulation (1) may not prevent the disclosure of any report, studies, strategies or recommendation to government on just transition within the meaning of the Act, but any such disclosure may not include facts the disclosure of which would harm the national interest.
- (3) The Commission is competent but may not be compelled to disclose information obtained in the course of performing out its functions or duties in terms of the Act in any proceedings in which the Commission is not a party, before—
- (a) a court of law; or
 - (b) any other body or institution established in terms of legislation.
- (4) Subregulation (3) does not apply in any proceedings before—
- (a) the National Assembly, or a portfolio or ad hoc committee of the National Assembly;
 - (b) a court in a criminal matter.

Disclosure of information

28. (1) Information in the possession of the Commission may be disclosed to any person on request by such person to the Commission, subject to the provisions of the Promotion of Access to Information Act and the Protection of Personal Information Act.
- (2) No person assisting the Commission may, without the permission of the Commission, disclose information obtained in the course of assisting the Commission carrying out its functions or duties in terms of the Act otherwise than in accordance with subregulation (1).

Short title and commencement

29. These Regulations are called the Regulations on the Administration and Operation of the Presidential Climate Commission, 2025 and take effect on the date of publication in the Government Gazette for implementation.
