4. DISCUSSION

- 4.1 The Government of South Africa (through the Minister of DIRCO) and International Institute for Democracy and Electoral Assistance ("IDEA") signed a Host Country agreement regarding the establishment of the Institute's regional office in South Africa, on the margins of a meeting hosted at DIRCO. In order to carry out their functions effectively, immunities and privileges should be conferred to the staff and premises of IDEA.
- 4.2 IDEA is an intergovernmental organisation that promotes and advances sustainable democracy on globally and strengthens national and regional capacities to develop a full range of democratic instruments. Given South Africa's notable commitment to democracy and human rights and its established track record of supporting democratic institutions and governance on the continent and globally, the strengthening of this partnership between the Government of South Africa and IDEA would be of strategic importance and value and would create pathways for joint opportunities focusing on ameliorating democracy globally. Also, South Africa will assume the Chairship of the IDEA Council of Member States in 2027. Therefore, the regional office would enhance South Africa's position to provide strategic direction and influence IDEA's work with South African foreign policy priorities.
- 4.3 The South African Treaty Section in the Office of the Chief State Law Adviser (IL) is responsible for the publication of the Minister's Minute in terms of section 7(2) of the Diplomatic Immunities and Privileges Act, 2001 (Act No. 37 of 2001). The Business Unit engaged the Treaty Section to request that the immunities and privileges and Ministers' Minute be published in the Government Gazette.
- 4.4 In order to confer immunities and privileges to the staff and premises of IDEA, in accordance with South Africa's domestic law, the Minister of International Relations and Cooperation must, in terms of section 7(2) of the Diplomatic Immunities and Privileges Act, 2001, by Notice in the Government Gazette, recognise the immunities and privileges. In order to do so, it is necessary for the Minister to sign the attached Minister's minute

5. FINANCIAL/LEGAL IMPLICATIONS

- 5.1 Financial: None.
- 5.2 Legal: Publication of the Notice in the Government Gazette will confer immunities and privileges as provided for in the Notice on IDEA and its members.
