“the Regulation” means Regulation R345 of the Agricultural Product Standards Act (Act 119 of 1990: 'Regulations regarding the grading, packing and marking of eggs destined for sale in the Republic of South Africa.

2. PURPOSE AND AIM OF STATUTORY MEASURE AND THE RELATION THEREOF TO OBJECTIVES OF THE ACT

The purpose and aim of this statutory measure are to compel the sellers of locally produced and/or imported table eggs as prescribed by (R345 as amended) and egg products (pulp & powder) including local hatcheries rejected eggs that are sold to the trade to render records and returns to the levy administrator. This is necessary to ensure that continuous, timeous and accurate information relating to the selling of table eggs as prescribed by (R345 as amended) and egg products (Imported and locally produced pulp & powder) including hatcheries rejected eggs sold to the trade is available to all role players.

Market information is deemed essential for all role players in order for them to make informed decisions. By prescribing the keeping of records with the rendering of returns on an individual basis, market information for the whole of the industry can be processed and disseminated. The establishment of the statutory measure should assist in promoting the efficiency of the marketing of meat. The viability of the egg industry should thus be enhanced.

The measure is not detrimental to any objectives of the Act and, in particular, shall not be detrimental to the number of employment opportunities or fair labour practice in the egg industry.

Confidential information of any person subject to this statutory measure obtained by the levy administrator through the implementation, administration and enforcement of this statutory measure shall be dealt with in accordance with section 23(2) of the Act.

The measure shall be administered by the levy administrator who will appoint a third party to assist them with the administration of the statutory measure. The latter shall act in terms of the mandate and on behalf of the South African Poultry Association.
