ELIGIBILITY

According to Regulation 48.1 of International Trade Administration Commission's ("the Commission") Anti-Dumping Regulations ("ADR"), the Commission shall consider a new shipper review after definitive anti-dumping duties have been imposed, upon a request by an exporter that did not export to SACU during the original investigation period for dumping. Additionally, such an exporter shall provide sufficient information to prove that it is not and was not related to any exporter/producer to which the anti-dumping duty was applied.

NEW SHIPPER REVIEW PROCEDURE IN TERMS OF ADR51

According to ADR51.1, a new shipper review shall consist of a single investigation phase. In this case, this review shall be conducted in one investigation phase, i.e., a final stage.

BACKGROUND

The Minister of Trade, Industry and Commission (“the Minister”) approved the Commission’s recommendations, and the recommendations were implemented by South African Revenue Service (“SARS”) on 28 July 2023. The Commission published its final determination and recommendation in its final Report No. 714.

Following the implementation of Report No. 714, the Commission received an application for new shipper review of the anti-dumping duty on new pneumatic tires of rubber of a kind used on motor cars and on buses or lorries originating in or imported from the PRC.

THE APPLICANT

The application was received from Shandong Changlu Hong Tire Co., Ltd, a manufacturer and exporter of the subject product from the PRC, alleging that it did not export the subject product to the Southern African Customs Union (“SACU”) during the period of investigation for dumping in the original investigation and it has no relationship with any of the exporters of the subject product from the PRC to which the anti-dumping duty was applied. The Applicant submitted evidence and established a prima facie case to enable the Commission to arrive at a reasonable conclusion that a new shipper review investigation should be initiated.

THE PRODUCT

The subject product is new shipper review of the anti-dumping measures on new pneumatic tyres of rubber of a kind used on motor cars (classifiable under tariff subheadings HS 4011.10.01, HS 4011.10.03, HS 4011.10.05, HS 4011.10.07, and HS 4011.10.09) and on buses or lorries (classifiable under tariff subheadings HS 4011.20.16, HS 4011.20.18, and HS 4011.20.26) originating in or imported from the PRC.

PERIOD OF INVESTIGATION

The investigation period for dumping is from 01 August 2023 to 31 July 2024.

LEGAL PROCEDURAL FRAMEWORK

Having decided that there is sufficient evidence and a prima facie case to justify the initiation of an investigation, the Commission has begun an investigation. The Commission will conduct its investigation in accordance with the relevant sections of the International Trade Administration Act (“ITA Act”), the Commission’s Anti-Dumping Regulations (“ADR”) and will give due regards to the World Trade Organisation Agreement on Implementation of Article VI of the GATT 1994 (the Anti-Dumping Agreement). Both the ITA Act and the ADR are available on the Commission’s website (www.itac.org.za) or from the Trade Remedies section, on request.

In accordance with ADR 50, the Commission recommended to the Minister that Shandong Changlu Hong Tire Co., Ltd be exempted from the payment of the anti-dumping duty on the subject product originating in or imported from the PRC. The Minister, on approval of the Commission’s recommendation, requested the Minister of Finance to withdraw the anti-dumping duty on the subject product originating in or imported from the PRC and manufactured by Shandong Changlu Hong Tire Co., Ltd and impose provisional payments at the same level as the applicable anti-dumping duty.
