

21 January 2021

To:

H.E. Mr. Cyril Ramaphosa
President
Republic of South Africa

Honourable Dr. Naledi Pandor
Minister of the Department of International Relations and Cooperation
Republic of South Africa

By email: RazwiedaniJ@dirco.gov.za | MakokoB@dirco.gov.za | malebo@presidency.gov.za |
Phumeza@presidency.gov.za | glory@dpme.gov.za

Dear H.E. President Cyril Ramaphosa and Honourable Minister Naledi Pandor,

R.E. Our Deepest Condolences to the Presidency, Government and People of South Africa on the passing of Honourable Minister Jackson Mthembu.

Global Citizen has the honour to write to you albeit under these very unfortunate circumstances. Comrade Jackson Mthembu was an honourable and hard working struggle Stewart who was an inspiration to all of us. As Global Citizen, and as a member of the international community, we extend our deepest condolences to the Presidency, Government and People of South Africa. Akuhlanga lungehlanga. Sithi ngxe, nilale ngenxeba.

Please accept the assurances of our highest considerations and esteem for the Office of the President and Government of South Africa.

Yours sincerely,

Hugh Evans,
Chief Executive Officer
Global Citizen
hce@globalpovertyproject.com

Michael Sheldrick
Chief Policy Officer
Global Citizen
michael.sheldrick@globalcitizen.org