

CORRUPTION
FIGHTING CORRUPTION IS EVERYONE'S BUSINESS

DID YOU KNOW?

The Special Tribunal adjudicates on matters that the SIU institutes for civil litigation after it has concluded its investigations to speed up litigation. This has made it possible for public funds and state assets lost to corrupt acts to be recovered faster, avoiding delays in the high courts.

REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

CORRUPTION
FIGHTING CORRUPTION IS EVERYONE'S BUSINESS

DID YOU KNOW?

Since its establishment
the Special Tribunal
has recovered around R8.6 billion from unlawful contracts.

REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

CORRUPTION
FIGHTING CORRUPTION IS EVERYONE'S BUSINESS

DID YOU KNOW?

Over the past few weeks, the Special Tribunal has reviewed and set aside more than R100 million worth of irregular and unlawful contracts arising from COVID-related procurement.

REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

CORRUPTION
FIGHTING CORRUPTION IS EVERYONE'S BUSINESS

“The arm of the law is long. Those who have stolen from the state may believe they have gotten away with it. But their deeds will eventually catch up with them, whoever they are, and whatever position they may hold.”

President Cyril Ramaphosa

REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

CORRUPTION
FIGHTING CORRUPTION IS EVERYONE'S BUSINESS

SPECIAL TRIBUNAL JUDGEMENT ORDER ON SAP/DWS

The R1 billion software license and support agreement contract concluded between SAP and Department of Water and Sanitation has been declared constitutionally invalid and set aside.

REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

CORRUPTION
FIGHTING CORRUPTION IS EVERYONE'S BUSINESS

SPECIAL TRIBUNAL JUDGEMENT ORDER ON SAP/DWS

The Special Tribunal ordered that SAP repay DWS the amount of R413 million of the software license contracts, which represents the total amount paid by DWS to SAP.

REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

CORRUPTION
FIGHTING CORRUPTION IS EVERYONE'S BUSINESS

SPECIAL TRIBUNAL JUDGEMENT ORDER ON SAP/DWS

Disciplinary Action against one senior official has been concluded and judgment is expected, while the DWS is considering disciplinary action against another official. Evidence pointing to criminality has been referred to the NPA, Asset Forfeiture Unit (AFU) and SARS.

REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

